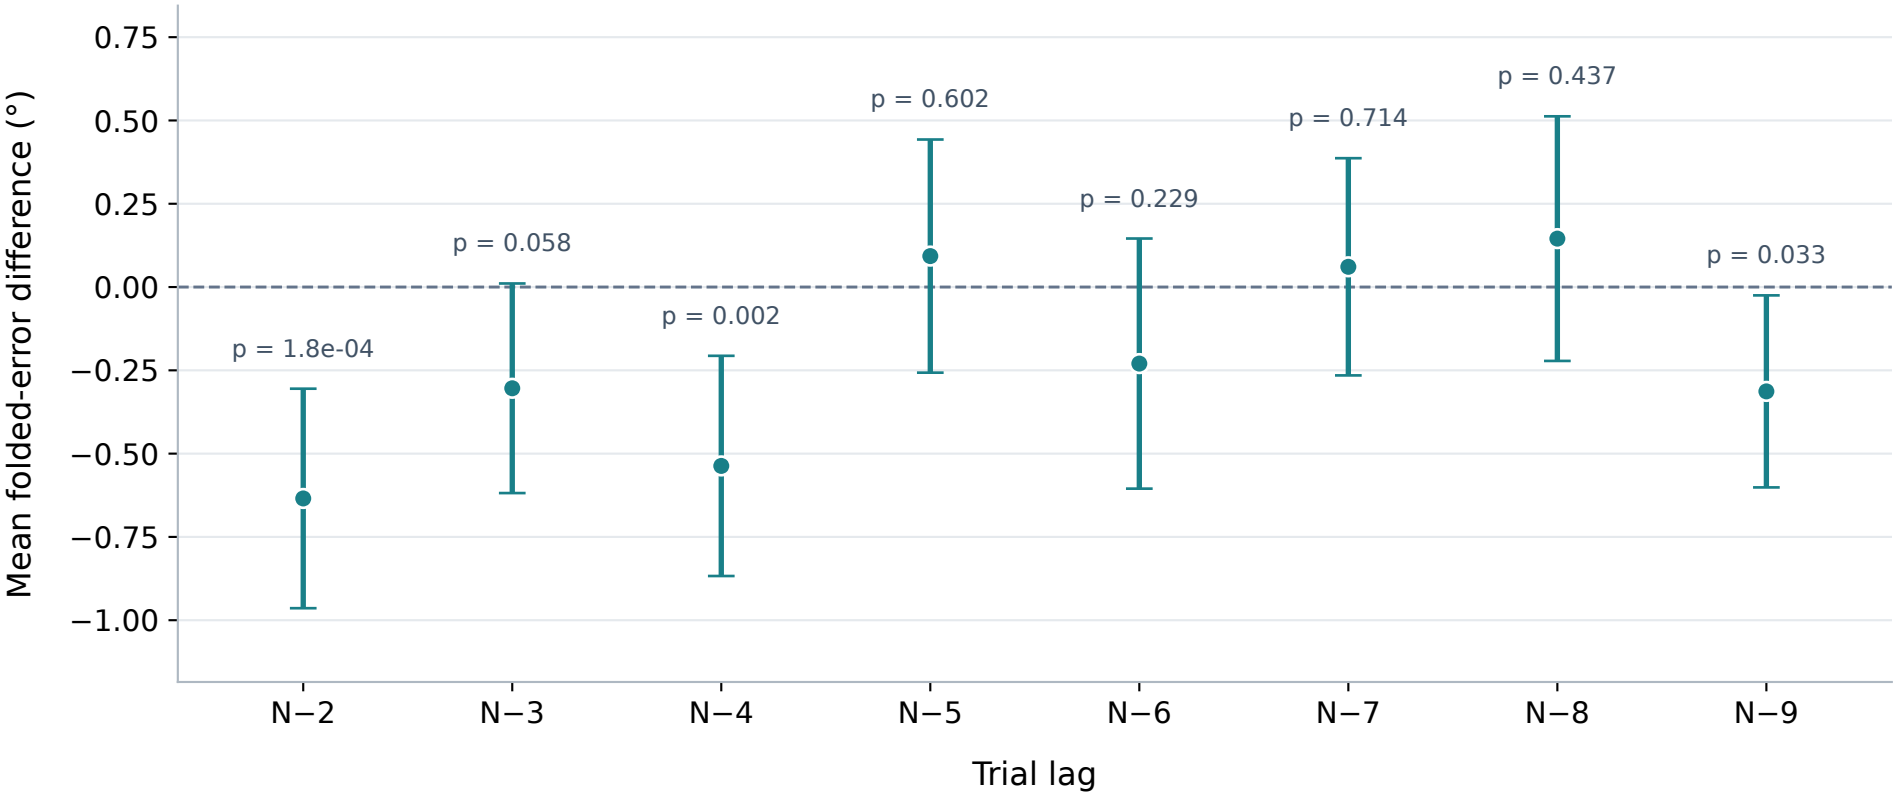
Bias difference by trial lag

Aligned − non-aligned resultant history | 20° < |delta| < 50°



Points: mean paired differences. Bars: 95% confidence intervals from the saved paired t-tests.

Positive values indicate greater folded bias in aligned trials. 290–294 observer–condition pairs per lag.

Exploratory: repeated-participant dependence is not modelled; p-values are unadjusted across lags.